Newsletter 23/06/21

Dear Parents/Carers,

Collective Worship Theme of the Week: Self Respect

I can do all this through him who gives me strength.
 PHILIPPIANS 4:13

Our 'Big Question' of the Week

How do you show respect for yourself?

Prayer of the week

Dear God

Thank you for the wide world around us, its diversity and interconnectedness Help us each be able to maintain a broad perspective, to look beyond the immediate Help us each to be willing to see and to respect the perspective of others, in order to broaden our own
 Help us to find time and space to connect, to listen, to see, to feel, to wonder
 Amen

Well Being: Tips

Whether we are involved with a global leadership event such as G7, leading a school or parish or even in our personal lives, some issues can seem like sharks posing a threat and causing anxiety. A natural reaction, and one often driven by pressures of time or resource, means that we tend to focus on the sharks nearest the boat – our school, our own lives. Sometimes we need to pause and look to see what we are dealing with. Sometimes we may realise that the sharks close by aren't such a threat after all, they are just close, persistent, even annoying! It may then be wise to focus on the sharks further out, to see and understand what is really out there because as well as the sharks there are other boats – other people, other organisations all facing similar situations. Gaining, and keeping a wider perspective, working with others to address shared issues can make a big difference to our well being and that of our families.
