DOGS

These cuddly companions are great little balls of energy that trash your entire house. They are very sweet and loyal .also each one has a different personality such as lap dog, energetic, lazy or crazy! There are so many breeds to choose from as well.

It is the time for a person to come in and tell us about their pet but I once had dogs so this time it's my turn.

What is your favourite breed?

Staffy (Staffordshire bull terroir) of course they are great companion.

What colour is your dog?

My first was white with black splodges and my second was brindle.

What does your dog do for fun?

He loved to play fetch and tug of war.

What would you rate your dog out of 10?

I would rate them both 9 out of ten if they would not leave hair everywhere I would give them a 10 but unfortunately not they need loads of attention as well

Firework craft

You will need –

Cardboard rolls

Scissors

Paint

Paint brush

Black paper

A plate (for pouring paint on)

Instructions:

Make vertical cuts all the way around the cardboard roll, spacing them at least 1cm apart. Long cuts that are around 5cm work the best but smaller cuts are good for the inside of the fireworks.

Bend the cut pieces of the cardboard roll so they're facing outwards, making a sun shape.

Pour paint onto a plate and use a paintbrush to spread it out. The paint circle needs to be large enough that it will cover the fanned out cardboard roll.

Dip the fanned ends of the cardboard roll into the paint. Bounce the roll up and down and rotate it to make sure you have good paint coverage, Stamp the paper roll onto your black paper.

Using a fresh cardboard roll, repeat the previous steps in a new colour.

You can experiment using different colours, layering them over each-other and by adding glitter.

Armistice Day is on 11 November and is also known as Remembrance Day. It marks the day World War One ended, at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month, back in 1918.

People remember those who were lost in the war by holding a two-minute silence and by wearing a red poppy.

We will remember them.

We remember the sacrifice of the Armed Forces community from Britain and the Commonwealth.

We pay tribute to the special contribution of families and of the emergency services.
