- Encouraging pupils to reflect and contemplate on their thoughts, feelings and beliefs.
- Using artefacts, secular stories, resources, music, art, drama and speakers to engage pupils' interest.
- Involving pupils in different experiences of worship, e.g. silence, prayer, rituals, shared or written prayers, etc.

Right to withdraw

- a. Parents/carers have the right to withdraw their child from collective worship and are not required to provide a reason for doing so.
- b. Parent/carers will be encouraged to discuss their decision with the headteacher following a request of withdrawal in terms of:
 - The elements of worship in which the parent/carer would object to the pupil taking part.
 - The practical implications of withdrawal.
 - Whether the parent/carer will require notice in advance of such worship, and if so, what period of notice is preferred.
- c. Withdrawal of a pupil usually involves their physical absence; however, if it is agreed so between the headteacher and parent/carer, the pupil may remain in the collective worship but will not be involved in any discussion.
- d. The headteacher will arrange alternative provision for any pupil who is withdrawn from collective worship; this may involve religious worship relevant to their particular faith or denomination provided that:

- The effect of the alternative provision would not replace the denominational collective worship with that of the statutory, non-denominational worship.
- Such arrangements can be made at no additional cost to the school.
- The alternative provision would be consistent with the overall purposes of the school curriculum.

8 Conclusion

All pupils are encouraged to learn about the beliefs of others in addition to their own as part of the religious education national curriculum. Collective worship is provided in a daily whole-school assembly, and is a time for the whole school to reflect on spiritual, moral, social and cultural issues. It is also distinctively Christian and contributes fully to the life and wellbeing of the school.
